Societies & Activities Board

The Societies & Activities Board is responsible for the management and development of Guild-affiliated student clubs, including societies, collectives, associations, councils and unions ("clubs"). The Board exists to enrich university life beyond the books.

The vision of ECU Student Guild ("the Association") is to represent and support all ECU students through educational, cultural, sporting, welfare and recreational programmes, activities and social intercourse.

Activities undertaken by Guild-affiliated clubs must be consistent with the aims and objectives of the Association.
